20
            On April 17, 2006, the parties informed the Court that they were in the process of 21
     discussing a proposed stipulation and order that would moot the need for further proceedings 22
     here, pending the disposition of arbitrated claims. On April 19, 2006, the Court ordered the 23
     parties to file, no later than April 25, 2006, either a stipulation and proposed order regarding 24
     the disposition of the claims remaining in this case, or the Case Management Statement/Status 25
     Report that was otherwise due on April 21, 2006.
26
            At the time the parties submitted the previous request for an extension of time, they 27 believed that the negotiations would be completed by April 24, 2006. However, 28
     notwithstanding the parties' good-faith negotiations and diligent efforts, including working during the weekends, the proposed stipulation and order has not been finalized. The parties still expect to agree to a proposed stipulation and order that would moot the need for further proceedings in this Court, pending the disposition of arbitrated claims, but believe that an additional ten days is needed to accomplish this.

The Court had also previously scheduled the next supplemental case management conference, to be conducted by telephone, for Friday, April 28, 2006. The parties believe that, given their current discussions, this conference should be cancelled and rescheduled for a later date.

THEREFORE, THE PARTIES STIPULATE and request that the Court order:

- (1) the parties will be excused from filing the Case Management Conference Statement/Status Report that was otherwise due on April 25, 2006;
- no later than May 5, 2006, the parties shall file either: (2)
 - a stipulation and proposed order regarding the disposition (a) of the claims remaining in this case; or
 - the Case Management Conference Statement/Status Report (b) that was otherwise due on April 25, 2006;
- the date for the next supplemental case management status conference, (3) currently scheduled for Friday, April 28, 2006, be vacated; and
- the next supplemental case management status conference be placed on (4) the Court's May 12, 2006 calendar and be conducted by telephone.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
